CELEBRATE HER BIRTHDAY ON HER DAUGHTER AND SON GRADUATION DAY!

To You LORD I Return all the praise, Glory, Thanksgiving, You alone is Worthy of my praise!

On this Day 16th July A Queen was Born, with purpose to make a different because my fight is different!

Thank You JESUS for another addition in my age... And my daughter head to secondary school, my son head to Grade 1.

My world, you both are blessed and highly favoured, More wisdom, God protection & guidance in your going out and coming in, always go with Jesus and come back with Jesus.

Your grace kept me, and your grace is sufficient!

Two reasons I don't compete!

- You can't have What's Mine!

- I don't want what's yours!

Life is too short to drink a bad Wine!

Impossible is Nothing because I have God of possibility!

Some of fans, Mantes, family & friends birthday messages.

The long awaited day is here. It's an Outstanding mum's birthday. The CEO of Jidekaiji Global Magazine , The CEO of Anaking Global Communication .The CEO of Intentional Confidence African Nations. My great motivational speaker . She is my mentor and my sister. I cherished her greatly . One of her qualities I cherished so much is her humility. She is so humble to earth always ready to give a listening ear and help. I can't celebrate you enough because you deserve everything good in life. Happy birthday my darling sister.

Mama as you celebrate this day I pray to heavenly father to open the gates of heaven on your behalf and shower you with all heavenly blessings in Jesus mighty name amen.

Keep winning

Keep soaring high in God's grace and blessings

Keep shining like the stars.

Love you loads Boss

EMEKA NOBIS

Pitch who you are.

I spent ten years of my life working as a Mechanical Engineer for a multinational oil servicing company. During my years working there, I met individuals who were gifted but couldn't come to terms with showcasing their gifts to humanity.

After ten years, I resigned from that job to focus on helping individuals who have a message to share with humanity, but are scared, doubtful and confused, to become exceptional by clarifying their messages, build a platform for the communication of their ideologies and to earn by establishing profitable business systems.

I blog via www.emekanobis.com, founded and administer a Facebook group called PEN & INK MASTERS.

I'm a TEDx Speaker and have been featured on

Nigeria Info FM, Today FM, Wazobia Max TV, Wish FM, Rave TV, and Rhythm FM. I've been featured on lots of print and digital media too many to mention.

What is your name?

Emeka Nobis

What do you do?

I'm your quintessential writer, coach, business consultant, and trainer. As a practising SAGE, I utilize effective coaching models to aid individuals and organisations reengineer their paradigms, thereby creating optimal cultures for success.

I'm trained and certified in the use and practice of Ericksonian Hypnosis, Results Technologies, Performance Consulting, and Neurological Repatterning,

As a thought leader I train individuals who have experiences, gifting, expertise or knowledge in subject areas to define clearly what their focus should be, communicate their ideologies using formidable platforms and to earn profitably by setting up processes and systems.

In simple terms, I train people to build a business out of the knowledge they have. What you know can be built into a business that is profitable. That's where Emeka Nobis is a Don in.

What inspired you?

The desire to see individuals rise to become influential and be noted for their exceptional offers to humanity made me deepen my resolve to resign and help as many as I can.

I also feel very fulfilled that by doing what you're knowledgeable about, you can be paid handsomely for it.

Services you offer?

Do you want to showcase to the world your talent, but you're so scared of doing so, perhaps because of family and friends and church people?

Do you think you have an experience - failed marriage, failed business, lovely parenting, or healthy turnaround - that the world needs to know?

Are you confused as to how to take your talent, knowledge or expertise and build it into something that can make money for you?

Know that your talent, expertise, experience, or knowledge can be built into a business that makes you popular, influential and known!

What's so sweet is that you can make money too!

To build that business is where you need an expert like me. Yes, I train and show you how to build a business based on those four areas.

To prove to you, I have a free gift for you that you can easily download now to start this!

Send a WhatsApp message "Be The Don" to 09025153322 now to get the free gift.

Got a company/organization you run?

My company, Profound Impacts International can...

- Help your organisation establish progressive leadership culture that turn employees into brand ambassadors.

- Train your middle and top managers on team dynamics and communication strategies that increase loyalty, bonding and patronage.

- Design and articulate customer experience and culture that raises profitability for your organisation.

- Train your marketing team to create compelling content that assures visibility in the market place, build influence for your brand, and engender patronage.

Your best quote!

Live your best life always!

MERCY ABRAHAM

Cucumber and grapefruit come together in this delicious drink to provide you with a refreshing cocktail with plenty of detoxifying benefits. This drink helps to detoxify the body by flushing out toxins from your digestive track. It also helps burn fat! To make this drink, you'll need the following.

½ gallon filtered water

½ grapefruit

½ cucumber

½ lime

½ lemon

First, you'll want to slice all your ingredients. How thinly you slice them is a matter of preference. I prefer to slice my cucumber into ¼" thick slices, and I cut each half of citrus fruit into eight segments. Once you've sliced your ingredients, add them to ½ gallon of filtered water, and refrigerate for several hours. Once your drink is nice and cold and has had time for the flavors of the cucumber and citrus to steep into the water, it's ready to drink! Try drinking a ½ gallon of this cucumber grapefruit water each day for maximum benefits.

Ezinne EDET

Ezinne Edet

"What do you do?" was one of the questions I dreaded.

Whenever I was asked, my eyes would naturally start swinging from side to side like a pendulum, my head 'turnionown', my lips quavering, and my heart banging against my chest. I would draw in a deep breath, heave a sigh and begin with "Errrr...."

Definitely, when someone asks 'what do you do?', they don't expect to hear stories of what you used to do. They are, usually, only interested in what you DO, or are DOING, for a living; what you do that earns you some bucks, no matter how little.

I used to work with a finance company, where I met my husband. After he proposed and we started planning for the wedding, we found out that if we were to get married, one of us would have to resign. At that time, the company policy did not allow both husband and wife to work together. Funny enough, I had barely worked for two years, but I had to quit that job and follow the man I love (and I have never regretted my decision).

You know how difficult it is to get a job in Nigeria, right? I was unable to get another job for a long time, except teaching. I was happy and contented with my teaching job until my husband was transferred to Zimbabwe. I had to leave my job, once again, as the children and I had to move with him.

Living in Zimbabwe was a different ballgame altogether, and I heard the question "what do you do?" almost every day.

Did I tell you I studied accountancy? Yes, I did, and working as an accountant was the last thing I wanted on my plate. (Don't ask me why I studied the course in the first place, because that's an entire story on its own).

Seeing what others were achieving with their writing skills, I challenged myself, "Ezinne, there's a wider audience waiting to be inspired by you. It's time to stop hiding your gifts and start shining with it." I quickly registered for a course with the UK Writers College, started attending trainings, joined Facebook writing groups, and started taking writing more seriously. The rest, they say, is history.

My name is Ezinne Edet. I am a creative writer, certified content marketer, and editor. I inspire young people to live their dreams and pursue their purpose. I am also a published author. I have authored two books, Beat Cancer Naturally which is a true-life account of my mum's battle with cancer and how she went from patient to survivor, and Love and Everything In Between, a compendium of short stories. In addition, I help personal and professional brands increase visibility, sales, and profitability through storytelling. My favourite quote is, "Be fearless in the pursuit of what sets your soul on fire."

NEW BOOK ALERT

"If you're interested in business with customers, you're going to want a BRAND because without it you lack IDENTITY, a PULSE, a PRESENCE, and PURPOSE" - Mary Van de Wiel

"Branding" is an old topic, an overused word and a less practiced technique

The rise of social technologies, opportunities and information has led to an immense competition in building and growing a business which thrives.

To thrive in a competitive market, you have to STAND OUT. And your uniqueness to stand out is communicated in your brand.

A good branding can make you dominate your niche or make you invisible in the market.

Whatever your goals are, this free eBook is a must-read for all business starters and owners as it provides the basic benefits and resources to start building your own brand in an easy-to-read format.
