Cover Story

Nkechi Harry Ngonadi

entrepreneur , motivational speaker.
fashion designer and CEO of NHN Couture is a woman of many parts and a successful industry leader .

She made her debut and caught much attention in the fashion industry with her slogan – Bringing Decency Back to Fashion with her brand NHN.

EARLY LIFE

Nkechi Harry Ngonadi was born 18th November 1975, grew up in the ancient and beautiful city of Zaria in Kaduna State, where she lived most of her life. She attended the prestigious Ahmadu Bello University where she studied Urban and Regional Planning and today she is married to top military personnel - Rear Admiral Harry Ngonadi. The couple are parents to two children.

CAREER

Nkechi Harry Ngonadi , is an Entrepreneur, Motivational speaker and CEO of the fashion house – NHN Couture ,a rare and unique brand which advocates strongly against indecent dressing in the fashion industry . She has been acknowledged by many leading publications for changing the narrative. This singular act has not just seen the NHN brand rise to the top but also seen it bridge the gap between fashion and the Christian faith using fashion as the major vehicle of the message.

NHN: The Brand

Starting out with her first love – Fashion, Nkechi has been able to use this ever evolving platform to educate, enrich and empower other women folk . A well travelled woman, showcasing her fashion prowess and speaking at public engagements , Nkechi started her journey in 2015 . She has since been featured on the cover edition of various top shelf magazines like – Thisday , Genevieve and Today's woman magazines who have interviewed world renowned personalities among other notable publications .

NHN : MOTIVATIONAL SPEAKER

Nkechi Harry Ngonadi aka NHN is a recipient of various awards. She was featured by the renowned Entrepreneur.com among the 11 AFRICAN ENTREPRENEURS changing the business landscape.

NHN was also featured by BUSINESS ELITES AFRICA among the 30 AFRICA'S MOST POWERFUL WOMEN. Her strong business acumen saw her as a keynote speaker at the Lagos Enterprise Summit which was designed to bring top notch stakeholders –top government officials and seasoned entrepreneurs together to discuss ways in which the public sector can support the private sector and galvanize Job creation, with a focus on succeeding at doing business in Nigeria.

She has also been involved in quite a number of prominent social responsibility engagements like “The BETA Proposition organised by a prestigious banking institute seeking to address convenience and financial access to women in Africa and third world countries. The programme was also aimed at pulling down barriers to accessing formal financial services locally . Other speaking engagement include –The Hub which is a GlobalBusiness and Success Conference where she spoke on the secrets and principles needed to make businesses stay relevant in this generation .

Other national and international speaking engagements include - The New Age influencer Fashionpreneurs , Ted X by a prestigious university – Covenant university ( 2017), The Women International Forum , Women Arise Conference, Leading Voices Africa , Youth Alive program , Women of Influence 2018 and many more to her credit.

AWARDS AND NOMINATIONS

Nkechi Harry Ngonadi has been recognized both Internationally & Nationally for not just her contributions to fashion design but also in mentoring and women empowerment at large . Since her debut on the runway in Dubai in November 2015 which was a beauty to behold -as the rich display of fabrics showing Nigeria's diverse culture were duly admired. In 2018, she received THE DESIGNER OF THE YEAR award at the Runway Dubai fashion show. At the same event, NHN used this global platform to highlight the struggles of the African women, using women who have overcome issues, emerging victorious. Some of these notable awards include Women of Praise Awards Uk(2016), 100 Nigeria's Most Inspiring Women(2017), La Mode Magazine-Fashion designer of the year(2017), Social Media Change Agent of the year(2017), 30 Africa's Most Powerful Women in Business(2017), 11 African Entrepreneurs Who are Changing the Business Landscape(2018) , La Mode Magazine - Inspiring

Humanitarian of the year(2018), NAPS
Outstanding Award of Excellence(2018), Honoree
–Whe atle Peart Global Business Ball (2019)

PROJECTS:

RUNWAY DUBAI 2015.

RUNWAY DUBAI 2018.

LONDON FASHION WEEK 2019.

In 2018, NHN launched THE NHN WOMEN EMPOWERMENT FOUNDATION as she celebrates her 5TH anniversary, a platform for empowering women through fashion . This saw the brand give out grants of #50k to #250k each to over 50 businesses. A total of 5 MILLION NAIRA.

NHN THE WARROOM,

A platform for women teaching and encouraging them in the place of PRAYERS. This movement started January 2018 and still ongoing with tremendous testimonies of God's faithfulness.

Holding 14th to 20th november 2019 in dubai. A gathering of women all over the world giving them a platform to share their story to inspire and motivate others.

Theme: FROM PAIN TO PURPOSE.

Happy Birthday to you NHN. which you celebrated on 18th of November @Dubai.

NHN MEET AND GREET DUBAI EDITION

Nhn Dubai meet and greet' was a huge success.

Here is the testimony written by the nhn_couture (warrior queen)

ALL IT TOOK WAS A RUGGED FAITH.

When god spoke to me concerning the retreat during our 40 days fast in January / February.

I didn't understand what he was saying, but he said gather my daughters this year for a retreat, i want to meet with them, i want to celebrate them.

When the assignment became clear, it looked too bigger to achieve.

I went back to pray.

He still confirmed it with his word.

I decided to obey and preparations was on top gear.

My faith was so high.

If God sent me, he will accomplish it.

It is his vision not mine.

No sponsors

No loans

No borrowing

No partnership

Only Jesus.

I tried to limit god,
Just 30 women,
God said no,
Then we increased to 50,
God still said no,
We yet again increased to 70,
God wanted more.
Women were registering,
I didn't understand.
We asked them to pay for their ticket, visa, hotel, breakfast and tours in foreign currency,
They responded.
Women were begging, we even had to reject so many.

Women registered from all over the world.
These 100 women are not Dubai residence.
Only 2 were Dubai residence.

90 percent of these women I have never met.

Mockers, mocked,
False accusers, accused,
Distractions from every side.
They laughed at me.
They mocked God!

From the very first day, I announced the retreat,
Attacks from all sides.
My business suffered,
My health was attacked,
My children were attacked,
My debtors bluntly refused to pay.
I was even told that some jobless individuals were busy discouraging speakers not to attend.

Then I knew it was God,
I was so confident of the outcome.
I knew it was going to end in praise.

The holy spirit said, organise a thanksgiving fast.

Thank me for a successful event even before it held.

Then Jesus showed up and showed out.
Excellence was all we delivered.

Jesus did it.

How then can you explain,
A gathering of 100 women and there was no fights, argument, jealousy, backbiting etc.

How do you explain that God used only what was available in my account to execute a world class international event without any assistance from anywhere or anybody just like he did in Matt 16:13-21 the feeding of the 5000.

It can only be God !

Pitch who you are?

Iwu Anthony Ikechukwu is a young renowned Christian speaker, trainer and life-coach on Leadership who helps thousands of people build and enhance their leadership skills each year.

He is the founder of YouthInfo, a Non-Governmental Organisation which centres on youth development. He is also the co-founder of Personal Transformation Academy, an online academy dedicated to mentoring young people on personal development.

has served as the president of Nigerian Federation of Catholic Students (NFCS), Port Harcourt Diocese, Nigeria. He is a member of Catholic Charismatic Renewal of Nigeria, God's Glory Prayer Group, Mater Parish, Port Harcourt and a member of Young African Leaders Initiative (YALI). He is also the author of "Idea Of Fortune".

Your Name?

Iwu Anthony Ikechukwu

What you do,?

Coach || Speaker || Trainer || Writer

I train on how to convert ideas, talent and gift to profitable business.

What Inspired you?

Most of the challenges of human existence can be traceable to wrong choice of leadership. I got the inspiration from God to write on 'Godly Leadership' using it as tool to correct the misinterpretation of leadership.

"Every leader was once a follower but with a different mindset and that mindset is what separates them from the followers." - Myles Munroe would say. So it takes a responsibility mindset to become a leader and the best approach to leadership is a selfless approach which I know many leaders don't have.

I was also inspired by the gifts deposited in the youth especially in Africa, that's why I initiated the Youthinfo as a platform to discover more of these potentials and to harness them to serve the immediate society on the focus to becoming future leaders.

Services you offer?

Self development trainings, speaking engagement and youth leadership consultant. I train on how to convert ideas to profitable business.

BARE TRUTH ABOUT ENTREPRENEURSHIP

Emotional Turbulence : As an entrepreneur, all the glamour and fulfillment you see from afar are not necessarily always the case. You are likely to experience fear, loss of faith and probably you might get depressed. When all your effort constantly seems to be failure coated.

Don't fret when this is the case as soon when you attain clarity, and have overcome all the hurdles, the rewards will be satisfying and then your smile will be broad.

You Might Become A Laughing Stock : When all you have is merely an idea, even close pals and relations might laugh at you for being crazy and unreasonable. Their simple reason for being so is that they fail to see the reward you've envisioned.

Don't worry when they don't understand the vision, remember it's all yours. Keep waiting for those who will see this with you and help you turn that idea into what they can see. When you are able to navigate through the whole process, it becomes clear to them and hard for them to be a part of it all.

All the things listed above wasn't intended to blow away your desire or discourage you from taking this part. It is simply to empower you with the knowledge and prepare your mind for the things it's likely to encounter on the journey.

These things are to enable you plan yourself before taking the decision to go all in.

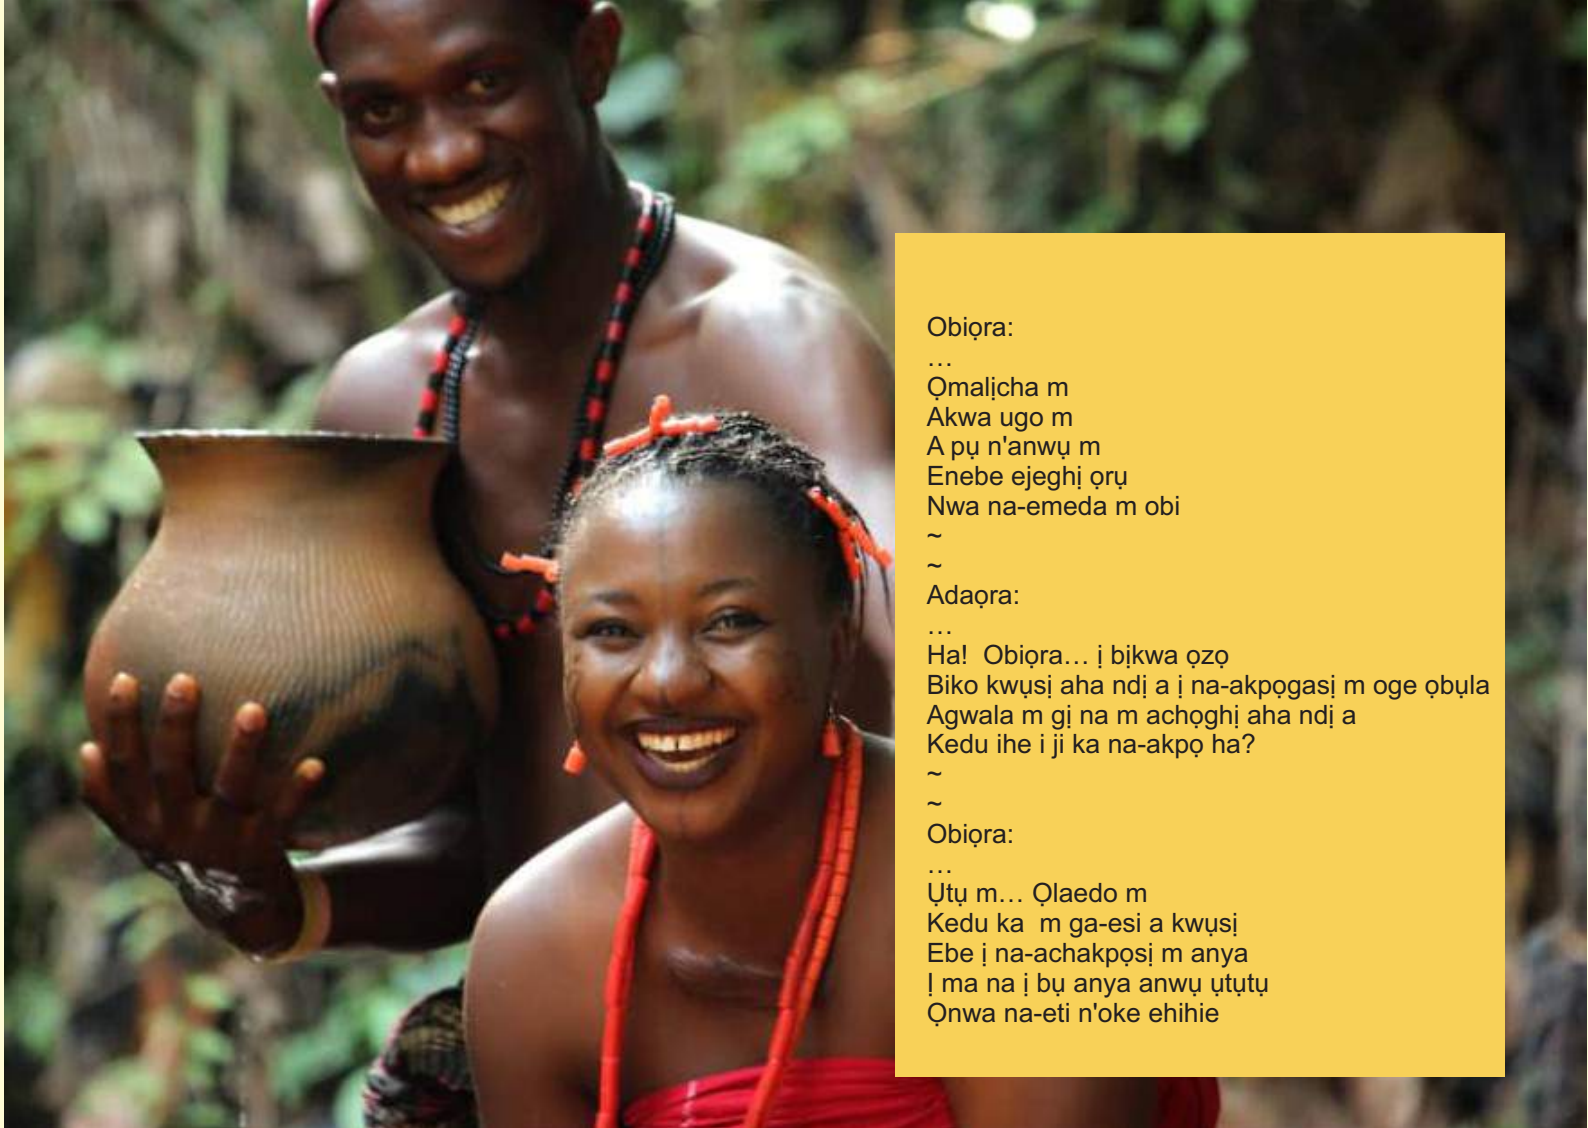

Entrepreneurship is absolutely rewarding, like every other noble thing, the sacrifices, failures, sweats, anxiousness, late nights and early mornings will eventually pay off. When the pay starts coming in, it will blow your mind away and calm down every nerve that must have been agitated all through the process of becoming.

Mrs Amaka Chinyere Obi a simple and fun person but also resilient and strong willed. Family and loyal friends means everything to me..

I work with A-Z oil as a sales Representative and on the side I do a Networking business with Oriflame. I'm also a baker.

I have learnt from early in life on how to take charge of situations. I was not born with a silver spoon, so in order to relieve my parents of some of the responsibilities in catering for I and my siblings, I started to do little things to help pay my school fees, that's when I discovered my passion for making pastries. I would fry chinchin and donuts back then and sell to my coursemates. After completing my OND I decided that going for parttime for my HND was a better option because I had to look for a job to makeup for school fees payment and house rent, that is when I applied and Got a job with A-Z. Juggling school and that was not really easy but I pulled through by God's Grace. My passion for baking remained and I decided to take classes to better my skills especially in Cake baking. Few years ago a friend introduced me to Oriflame & I can tell you that I don't regret investing one bit.

I bake cake for birthday parties, I have wonderful organic products of Oriflame for sale and I also do meal delivery services for our busy folks.

AFRICAN CULTURE/PARENTING & EMPOWERMENT
- CHIZISPACE

Cultivating manners, respect and confidence.

Is part of parents role or guidance to nature their child/Children and catch them young In vital positive things that can add value to their Lives.

Teaching them our Native Language/Culture especially those living in Cities and Abroad.

Before children/teen becomes an adult, they need to learn vital culture, manner of approach, best way to talk to elderly ones, homely, professional good conducts, develop courage and responsibility.

Our job is to teach our children/ teens the need by providing opportunities to learn each of these traits through us, children learn fast by copying their parents, which means we need to empower our teen to increase chances of living a well manner, independence, fulfilling, empowered, happy and successful life.

Here you can learn all the essential things you need to know that will help you be the best you can and more!

African parenting might be slightly different from other continent, but when it comes to respecting your parents not talking back at them aggressively is a No No in our culture, it's regarded as bad Manner's and not acceptable in our society.

Talk to your parents calmly of any of your concern in good manner and mutual understandable way.

Believe in your self, have a positive out look toward life be passionate to be a role model not just in your family but in the world because sky is not a limit but your starting point.
